Miss Hattie Cleek, of Cleek's Mill, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Williams.

Mrs. David Bratten, of Bolivar, was the guest of Mrs. Dr. K. H. Trimble a couple of days this week.

John W. Bird, Esq., and bride passed through town, Wednesday, on their way to their home at Mill Gap.

Mr. Henry Trimble started Wednesday, for Richmond, where he will make application to join the U. S. army.

Mr. Wm. Ruleman, of Augusta county, was in this county yesterday removing cattle to their winter quarters.

Miss Bertie Beard and Mrs. Oscar Nottingham, two Pocahontas county ladies, were in Monterey last week, shopping.

Messrs. Sandy Patterson and Clifton Noel, of Pocahontas county, spent Wednesday night with friends in Monterey.

Mr. John Rexrode, of McDowell, spent Monday night in town. He was on his way to Back Creek, where he is making some new road.

It has been decided that Colonel Lamb, of Norfolk, will in future be state chairman of the republican party of Virginia. It is said that he is a good man.

Miss Pearl Lightner, of Back Creek, spent Tuesday night in Monterey. Wednesday she went to Greenville, where she will spend some time visiting friends.

Messrs. Dave Hiner and Wm. Wilson are visiting the wood-piles of the town with their engine and saw, making stove-wood, greatly to the sorrow of the small boys.

The present management of the Staunton Spectator sent out its last issue this week. We deeply regret that the circumstances were such as to compel this able editor to lay down his pencil.

Hon. C. P. Jones left Monday for Richmond, where he will enter upon his duties in the Senate chamber. Mr. Don Sullenberger accompanied him as far as Staunton, returning Wednesday.

Mrs. L. H. Stephenson and Miss Sadie Stephenson went to McDowell yesterday, where they will take the hack to Staunton and from thence to the Atlanta Exposition where they will spend several days.

If you are anxious to find the most reliable blood-purifier, read in Ayer's Almanac the testimonials of those who have been cured of such terrible diseases as catarrh, rheumatism and scrofula, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Then govern yourself accordingly.

During the prevalence of la grippe, those who made use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral found it prompt to act and sure to cure. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in all diseases of the throat and lungs, and the only remedy successful in consumption.

Yesterday morning while Mr. J. Trimble was standing near his residence, he heard the report of a gun which was about a mile from him. In a few seconds he heard a slight noise near him and saw the dust fly up. He made an examination and found a Winchester ball fast to a rock. This should be a warning to persons who use these dangerous guns.

Miss Mary E. Armstrong, who has been in declining health for a year or more, died at the home of her brother in Fauquier county, on Friday evening, last. Miss Mary was a native of Highland, a daughter of the late George Armstrong, and had a large relationship in this county.

Expecting to be in Highland County early in December, residents of McDowell, Monterey, & Rabboton, &c. are requested to defer having their pianos tuned until they see me and get my terms. Residents of the county not too far from above towns will confer a favor by once sending their addresses, should they wish their pianos put in good condition, to the office of the Highland Recorder, addressed to M. S. Turner.

Cattle to Trade.

I will be at Monterey on December 9th and 10th with 45 head of cattle, consisting of oxen, cows and young stock cattle, which I will offer to the public for cash or in exchange for young or old horses or mules in good condition.

I will be at Top of Alleghany on the 12th and 13th prepared to sell or trade. Look for me, I'm coming. M. B. FREEMAN.

Thanks.

I wish to offer my thanks to my many friends who so kindly and thoughtfully came to my relief in giving me sufficient money to purchase another horse in the place of the one I lost last Summer. They have furnished me with a better one than the one lost. Such kindness, I assure you, is much appreciated. I am much indebted to Dr. K. H. Trimble, Dr. N. A. Whitlaw, Miss Sadie Lightner, Miss Minnie Briscoe and Miss Sadie Bird, for soliciting contributions. W. H. Woolf.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

J. K. Rexrode has moved his road machine to our neighborhood and is repairing the roads on Jacks-sons river and the road leading to Monterey.

W. A. Slaven was visiting in our neighborhood a few days last week. Mrs. James Ryder and Mrs. Sadie B. Ryder, of Monterey, were visiting at Mr. Hugh Ryder's to-day.

Wishing the many readers of the Recorder a merry Xmas, I am, MACK.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Traveller's Repose Terse Telegrams.

DECEMBER 3.—Traveller's Repose has not been heard from for some time through the columns of your paper, and in view of this fact, we hope you will give space to the brief items below written:

The rains of the past two weeks have served to swell the tide of Greenbrier river as well as to replenish the springs throughout the neighborhood.

Hunting has been in order for sometime, and not a few of the deer-footed denizens of the mountains have their fate. Assessor C. O. Arbogast, with others, had the good luck of killing six deer while hunting on the west branch of Greenbrier, last week.

Messrs. Henry A. Yeager, of Marlinton, and James Kerr, of near Arboretale, recently took a week's gunning in this section.

A sumptuous dining was given at Mr. P. M. Yeager's on Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Quade Beard has been the guest of Mrs. E. A. Arbogast for several weeks.

Arbogast & Slaven, tanners, from your place, were in our midst on the 28th and 29th ultimo.

John Yeager and Ray, Arbogast returned to Marlinton on Wednesday, of last week.

Cam Arbogast and Miss Pearl Yeager opened the season's sport last week, when they led off in a "mule-back" ride, going to Dysard's store and to other points in the neighborhood, too tedious to mention. Strange that we were reminded of the "Flight into Egypt." X.

From Valley Center.

VALLEY CENTER, Dec. 3.—Mr. Matheny has bought an engine for his mill, and after some repairs to the milling machinery, has started his mill. Mr. Robert Matheny is acting as engineer and they have been quite busy since the mill started.

The change in the road near Valley Center store is being pushed to completion, under the supervision of Mr. Rexrode. This change will make a very decided improvement in the road.

Mr. Charles Burns has been confined to his home for some weeks, having received a hurt from a horse. He has also been suffering from neuralgia.

Mr. Williams was returning from the store a few nights ago, with a lighted lantern and an oil can, when his horse became frightened and jumped over a bank, turning a complete summersault. When Mr. Williams took to his situation, he was still sitting on his horse, his lantern burning and oil can uninjured. His horse did not get so well, it being somewhat injured by the fall.

Rev. W. H. Woolf preached at Rehobeth, last Sunday morning, to a good congregation, though the day was threatening. He received two members into the church.

The Sunday school having been closed for the winter, a bible class has been organized. X. Y. Z.

McDowell Dots.

McDOWELL, Dec. 4.—Farmers are very busy hauling in their winter wood.

Rev. C. H. Dobbs held a series of meetings at McKendree last week.

J. J. Hiner made a flying trip to Staunton one day last week.

Mr. R. F. Gillett and wife spent last Sunday at his home, at Prospect. Mr. George Rodgers has returned from an extended visit to eastern Virginia.

Mrs. J. M. Hook is very much complaining at this writing.

Luther Byrd is still in our village.

Mrs. Dr. Siron left Saturday to attend the marriage of her sister, Miss Laura Wandless, to Mr. Porte Armentrout, both of Bath county.

Miss Mary Revercomb, daughter of Geo. Revercomb, of Clover Creek, was married to Mr. John McGuffin, of Warm Springs, Tuesday morning. Rev. C. H. Dobbs performed the ceremony.

Miss Lillie Hook made a flying trip to Monterey, last Tuesday.

Wm. Quidore has been ill for the past few days, but is convalescing. Miss Jennie Siron spent Saturday and Sunday at McKendree.

Mr. George Lockridge, of Clover Creek, was in town Saturday.

Mrs. Brew spent Friday night at the hotel on her return home.

There was an excellent Thanksgiving supper served at Mrs. J. E. Bradshaw's on Thursday evening, and was very much enjoyed by the young people. All said they enjoyed the "tuckey."

Mr. Chas. MacIntire passed through town, enroute east to spend a week of pleasure, "he said."

B. Bradshaw, Saturday and Sunday. There was a "grand musicale" given last Friday night at the hotel, by Mr. Swallow, Professor Colvin and Mr. Brew. It was enjoyed by all, and we hope they will come again as a good laugh cheers one up.

We hope the "school-marm" enjoyed the "Thanksgiving Tuckey."

Gilbert Siron returned Tuesday from a visit to eastern Virginia. More anon. DALETH.

Doctors Say;

Bilious and Intermittent Fevers which prevail in miasmatic districts are invariably accompanied by derangements of the Stomach Liver and Bowels.

The Secret of Health.

The liver is the great "driving wheel" in the mechanism of man, and when it is out of order, the whole system becomes deranged and disease is the result.

When the value of the patterns is considered the subscriber actually gets Demorest's Magazine Free.

And what a magazine it is! For 1896 it will be more brilliant than ever before. New management, new methods, new ideas. Each copy contains an exquisite reproduction in colors of some celebrated picture by a famous artist, worthy to adorn the walls of the most refined home. It is affirmed that Demorest's is the only complete Family Magazine published combining all of the most excellent points of contemporary literature having infinitely features of its own. Demorest's is actually a Dozen Magazines in one.

It is a digest of Current Events and Ideas for the busy man or woman. A Review and a Storehouse of interest for all. Wives, as mothers and daughters can find exactly what they want to amuse and in truest sense of domestic and social life, including the furnishing and ornamenting of the home, embroidery, dress-making, artistic and fancy work of all kinds, etc., etc., and suggestions and advice regarding the well-being and dressing of their own persons.

The scope of the articles for 1895 and 1896 will cover the whole country and its varied interests, and the articles will be profusely illustrated with the finest engraving, and in addition, it will publish the best and purest fiction. It treats at length of Out-of-door Sports, Home Amusements and Entertainments; it gives a great deal of information to the CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT, and "OUR GIRLS" and has a monthly summary of Celebrated People. Monthly summaries of important questions of the hour of interest to the older readers. You get more value for your money than in any magazine to secure in any other magazine.

The Magazine one year for $2.00. Or six Months for 1.00.

(Over 250 different garments are shown each year, patterns of all of which are obtained by subscribers at 4c. each.) Sample copy, with pattern coupon, sent for 10c.
